

Open My Eyes

Words and music © Jane and Jon Best 2005 based on Psalm 23

Open my eyes. (echo)

Show me the way. (echo)

Shepherd of my soul,

Lead and I will follow (final time... You)

1. resting in green pastures,
 drinking your still waters;
 even in dark valleys, your love restores my soul.

2. I will fear no evil
 for you are with me.
 Pour out your spirit, and my cup will overflow!

So often we use this psalm in a “wussy” way, feeling sorry for ourselves, and I wanted a more cheerful and energetic take on it. Jon was just beginning to play bass, and his present arrangement reflects how much he has learned since then, both with bass and electric.
